Questions

7. (1) A member of the Board may ask the Chairman of a Committee any question upon an item of the report of a Committee when that item is under consideration by the Board.

(2) A member of the Board may;

a. if four clear days notice in writing has been given to the Town Clerk ask the Chairman or the Chairman of any Committee any question on any matter in relation to which the Board has powers or duties or which affects the district.

b. with the permission of the Chairman put to him/her or the Chairman of any Committee any questions relating to the urgent business, of which such notice has not been given; but a copy of any such question shall, if possible, be delivered to the Town Clerk not later than 500pm on the day of the meeting

7. [continued]

(3) Every question shall be put and answered without discussion, but the person to whom a question has been put may decline to answer.

(4) An answer may take the form of:

- a. a direct oral answer, or
- b. where the desired information is contained in a publication of the Board, a reference to that publication; or
- c. where the reply to the question cannot conveniently be given orally, a written answer circulated to members of the Board

Minutes

8. (1) The Chairman shall put the question that the minutes of the meeting of the Board held on a particular day be approved as a correct record.

(2) No discussion shall take place upon the minutes, except upon their accuracy and any question of their accuracy shall be raised by motion, If no such question is raised or if it is then as soon as it has been disposed of, the Chairman shall sign the minutes.

Rules of debate for Board Meetings

9. (1) A motion or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded, and unless notice has already been given in accordance with Standing Order 5 it shall, if required by the Chairman, be put into writing and handed to the Chairman before it is further discussed or put to the meeting.

- a. by the Chairman at his/her discretion; or
- b. by a resolution duly moved and seconded and passed on a motion which shall be moved and put without discussion

(2) A member when seconding a motion or amendment may, if he/she then declares his/her intention to do so, reserve his/her speech until a later period of the debate.

(3) A member when speaking shall address the Chairman. If two or more members speak, the Chairman shall decide to whom the priority of speaking belongs and whilst a member is speaking the other members shall remain silent unless raising a point of order or a personal explanation.

(4) A member shall direct his/her speech to the question under discussion or to a personal explanation or to a point of order. No speech shall exceed five minutes except by consent of the Board.

(5) A member who has spoken on any motion shall not speak again whilst it is the subject of debate, except;

- a. to speak once on an amendment moved by another member
- b. if the motion has been amended since he/she last spoke, to move a further amendment
- c. if his/her first speech was on an amendment moved by another member, to speak on the main issue, whether or not the amendment on which he/she spoke was carried
- d. in exercise of a right to reply given by Paragraph (11) or (13) of this standing order
- e. on a point of order
- f. by way of personal explanation

(6) An amendment shall be relevant to the motion and shall be either:

- a. to refer a subject of debate to a Committee for consideration or reconsideration
- b. to leave out words
- c. to leave out words and insert or add others
- d. to insert or add words

but such omission, insertion or addition of words shall not have the effect of negating the motion before the Board

(7) Only one amendment may be moved and discussed at a time and no further amendment shall be moved until the amendment under discussion has been disposed of.

9. [continued]

(8) If an amendment be lost, other amendments may be moved on the original motion. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.

(9) A member may with the consent of the Board signified without discussion:

- a. alter a motion of which he/she has given notice, or
- b. with the further consent of his/her seconder alter a motion which he/she has moved if (in either case) the alteration is one which could be made as an amendment thereto.

(10) A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of his/her seconder and of the Board which shall be signified without further discussion, and no member may speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

(11) The mover of a motion has a right to reply at the close of the debate on the motion, immediately before it is put to the vote. If an amendment is moved, the mover of the original motion shall also have a right to reply at the close of the debate on the amendment, and shall not otherwise speak on the amendment. The mover of the amendment shall have no right of reply to the debate on his/her amendment.

(12) When a motion is under debate no motion shall be moved except the following:

- a. to amend the motion
- b. to adjourn the meeting

- g. by the Chairman under Standing Order 11(2) that a member do leave the meeting
- h. a motion under Standing Order 6 (16) or 12 to exclude the public

(13) A member may move without comment at the conclusion of a speech of another member, "That the Board proceed to the next business", "That the question be now put", "That the debate be now adjourned", or "That the Board do now adjourn", on the seconding of which the Chairman shall proceed as follows:

a. on a motion to proceed to next business: unless in his/her opinion the matter before the meeting has been insufficiently discussed, he/she shall first give the mover of the original motion a right to reply, and then put to the vote the motion to proceed to next business

b. on a motion that the question be now put; unless in his/her opinion the matter before the meeting has been insufficiently discussed, he/she shall first put to the vote the motion that the question be now put, and if it is passed then give the mover of the original motion his/her right of reply under Paragraph (11) of this Standing Order before putting his motion to the vote

c. on a motion to adjourn the debate or the meeting; if in his/her opinion the matter before the meeting has not been sufficiently discussed and cannot reasonably be sufficiently discussed on that occasion he/she shall put the adjournment motion to the vote without giving the mover of the original motion his/her right of reply on that occasion.

(14) A member raising a point of order or giving a personal explanation shall be entitled to be heard forthwith. A point of order shall relate only to an alleged breach of a standing order or statutory provision and the member shall specify the standing order or statutory provision and the way in which he/she considers it has been broken. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by his/her which may appear to have been misunderstood in the present debate.

(15) The ruling of the Chairman on a point of order or on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall not be open to discussion.

(16) Whenever the Chairman rises during a debate a member then speaking and the Board shall be silent.

Motions affecting persons employed by the Board

10. If any question arises at a meeting of the Board (or of a Committee thereof) as to the appointment, promotion, dismissal, salary, superannuation or conditions of service, or as to the conduct of any person employed by the Board such question shall not be the subject of discussion until the Board has decided whether or not to sit as a Committee in private session;

10. [continued]

Disorderly Conduct

11. (1) If at a meeting any member of the Board, in the opinion of the Chairman notified to the Board, misconducts himself/herself by persistently disregarding the ruling of the Chair, or by behaving irregularly, improperly, or offensively, or by wilfully obstructing the business of the Board, the Chairman or any other member may move "That the member named be not further heard" and the motion if seconded shall be put and determined without discussion.

(2) If the member named continues his/her misconduct after a motion under the foregoing paragraph has been carried the Chairman shall:

EITHER move "That the member named do leave the Meeting" (in which case the motion shall be put and determined without seconding or discussion);

OR adjourn the meeting of the Board for such period as he/she in his/her discretion shall consider expedient

(3) In the event of general disturbance which in the opinion of the Chairman renders the due and orderly dispatch of business impossible, the Chairman in addition to any other power vested in him/her may, without questions put adjourn the meeting of the Board for such a period as he/she in his/her discretion shall consider expedient.

Disturbance by members of the public

12. If a member of the public interrupts the proceedings at any meeting the Chairman shall warn him/her. If he/she continues the interruption the Chairman shall order his/her removal from the Boardroom. In case of general disturbance in any part of the Boardroom open to the public the Chairman shall order that part to be cleared.

Rescission of preceding resolution

13. No motion to rescind any resolutions passed within the preceding six months, and no motion or amendment to the same effect as one which has been rejected within the preceding six months shall be proposed unless the notice thereof given in pursuance of Standing Order 5 bears the names of at least four members of the Board. When any such motion or amendment has been disposed of by the Board, it shall not be open to any member to propose a similar motion within a further period of six months.

Provided that this Standing Order shall not apply to motions moved in pursuance of a recommendation of a Committee.

Voting

14. The mode of voting at meetings of the Board shall be by show of hands.

Every member present when the question is put shall be required to vote for or against.

Voting on appointments

15. (1) Where there are more than 2 persons nominated for any position to be filled by the board, and of the votes given there is not a majority in favour of one person, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote shall be taken, until such time as only two nominated persons remain.

(2) There shall then be a further vote taken in respect of the two remaining nominated persons, and in the event of a tied vote the 2 candidates nominated shall be asked and given the opportunity to withdraw from the election. If the candidates do not wish to withdraw the incoming Chairman shall have a casting vote (save and except in relation to issues governed by Standing Orders 2 and 15.4 hereof

(3) Whenever a meeting is being conducted, in part or in whole, for the purposes of the appointment of a person to the board, the Chairman of the meeting shall for the time such business is being conducted be defined as the incoming Chairman, except where the appointment falls under section 15(4).

(4) In the event that the appointment for which business is being conducted is that the appointment of the incoming Chairman, the incumbent Chairman shall remain as the Chairman of the meeting for the time of such business.

STANDING ORDERS ON THE MAKING OF CONTRACT

PART I - GENERAL

Application

1. These standing orders shall apply to the making of contracts by the Board or on its behalf for the supply of goods or materials or for the execution of works required to be made by Section 27(3) of the Local Government Act 1985 (the Act")

Invitation of tenders

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) and (3) and standing order 3 before seeking to make any contract the Board shall cause appropriate public notices to be placed in a newspaper circulating in the Island and/or a trade journal giving not less than fourteen days notice of the intended contract and inviting tenders therefore by a fixed date and time (Section 27(3)(a) of the Act

(2) In the case of a contract for capital works (see standing order 10) the public notice given under paragraph (1) may invite any contractor interested in tendering for the work to submit his name to the Board and the Board may then proceed to request tenders from contractors selected from the list of those responding to the notice.

(3) The Board may be resolution exempt any contract from the provisions of paragraph (1) where the Board is satisfied that the exemption is justified by special circumstances (Section 27(3)(c) of the Act)

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of standing order 2(1):

a. Tenders for a contract for the execution of works estimated to cost between £1,000.00 and £3,000.00 may be sought from not fewer than three (Registered) contractors without public notice inviting tenders (Section 27(3)(b) of the Act)

b. A contract for emergency works or an contract estimated to cost less than £1,000.00 may be sought or negotiated directly with a (Registered*) contractor except that the circumstances of any emergency contract exceeding £1,000.00 in cost shall be reported to the Board (Section 27(3)(b) of the Act)

Contracts

4. All written contracts must provide for damages for default by the contractor and for possible cancellation in the case of bribery.

Tenders

5. Tenders shall be required to be forwarded to the Town Clerk in plain envelopes marked TENDER". Any tender received after the date and time fixed for receipt shall not be considered.

6. Tenders shall be opened after the fixed date and time by the Town Clerk in the presence of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Board.

7. Where the authority decides to accept a tender other than the lowest, the reasons for such action must be specified in the Minutes of the meeting at which the Board makes that decision.

Payments on Account

8. Payment on account to contractors shall be made on a certificate issued by an authorised officer of the Board which shall show the total amount of the contract, the value of work executed to date, retention money, amounts paid to date, and amounts now certified.

Variations of Contract

9. Every significant variation on a contract for the execution of works shall be authorised in writing by the Board (or an authorised officer of the Board). Variations which will result in the amount of the accepted tender being exceeded shall, as soon as possible, be reported to the Board and, except where unavoidable in the Board's interest, no expenditure shall be incurred in respect of such variation without the approval of the Board.

PART II - CAPITAL SCHEMES

Application

10. In addition to the foregoing provisions this Part shall have effect in regard to any contract for the execution of works which will form the subject of a borrowing petition to the Department of Local Government & the Environment.

Pre-petition procedures

11. The Department of Local Government & the Environment's recommended pre-petition procedures must be observed.

Contracts

12. An appropriate standard form of building or engineering contract must be used and every clause completed or deleted as applicable.

13. Where the contract provides for increase in the cost of labour and materials, a schedule of the prices of labour, materials and goods must be completed. If this schedule is not completed the contract must state that fluctuations will not be allowed.
